

The Daily Herald.

Correspondence solicited on all matters of local interest, or of interest to the people of Southwest Texas. Each communication must be accompanied by the name of its author, not for publication (unless so directed) but as a guarantee of good faith, and when by request fictitious signatures appear to such communications, the right is reserved to disclose the name of the writer should a necessity arise for such disclosure.

Subscribers who do not receive their papers regularly are specially requested to notify this office by letter or in person. Any such complaints will receive prompt attention and insure better service hereafter.

LITTLE LOCALS

How do you like our story?

To-morrow will be Thanksgiving day.

Everybody says better times are coming.

Eggs are selling quite high in the market.

Let every one give thanks to-morrow.

Our subscription list continues to increase.

There are ten applicants for the Victoria postoffice.

We pause to remark that this is beautiful weather.

The days of the Thanksgiving turkey are numbered.

You will find THE HERALD a good advertising medium.

Only two applicants for collector of customs for this district.

Remember, there will be no business transacted at postoffice to-morrow.

Judge H. C. Pleasants has been ill, but is well again, we are glad to state.

If you have any holiday goods in stock it is time you were advertising them.

Miss Mary Douglas, we are sorry to state, is confined to her room with sickness.

Captain Johnson is justly proud of the record his company has made at target practice.

There is again talk of a resumption of work on the Pan-American railroad at Victoria.

Congressman Crain, who has been quite sick at his home in Cuero, is convalescent again.

Dr. A. S. Wolff, who has been quite ill for some days, is we are glad to state, convalescent again.

There was an addition of several new members to the Brownsville Knights of Honor lodge last night.

The editor of THE HERALD has about recovered from his recent illness and we hope to be able to give our patrons a better paper.

Anyone having one or two copies of THE HERALD of date Monday, Nov. 21, will confer a great favor by leaving them at this office.

Sheriff Honchins, of Lavaca county, and Sheriff Walton, of Bee county are applicants for the office of U. S. marshal of the western district of Texas.

Five cars of silver bullion were transferred from the Mexican National road to the International today. The bullion is en route from Mexico to New York city.—Laredo News.

The new "boomerang" postal cards are in general use now. Postmaster Hoyt has a supply of them. If you want to be sure of getting a reply, or prepay your correspondent's answer, the new card is the thing.

There will be religious services at the Episcopal church, this city, to-morrow (Thursday) morning, at 10:30 o'clock. All are cordially invited to attend.

The Thanksgiving ball which was to have taken place on to-morrow night, has been indefinitely postponed, owing to a number of the society young men being out of the city.

Mr. B. L. Cwin, who left for Galveston this morning over the Alice stage route, expects to return home on the steamship Morgan, which will probably reach Brazos Saturday afternoon.

A few friends were entertained at the residence of Mr. H. E. Woodhouse last evening. Mrs. Woodhouse is a very charming hostess, and all present spent a most delightful evening.

President C. P. Huntington was in San Antonio Tuesday, and, of course, was interviewed by the Express. In answer to the question whether he had purchased the Aransas Pass road, his answer was: "You can inform your readers that it is not yet purchased that negotiations are still pending, and with every prospect of ultimate success."—Cuero Bulletin.

IN MEMORIAM.

Cuero Bulletin, Nov. 18.

Died, at Brownsville, Tex., Oct. 25th, 1892, Mary Pleasants, infant daughter of J. J. and M. P. Cooke, age eight months and eight days. The parents of their bright and beautiful little one have the deep sympathy of their large circle of friends and acquaintances in their sad bereavement. Beautiful in face, bright in intellect, and joyous and happy in disposition, this was indeed a lovely child, and up to the time of her last sickness, which lasted but a few days, she had always been in perfect health. None but those who have been called to pass through the valley of anguish and sorrow, can fully appreciate the terrible pain and heart rending that comes to the parent when his child is taken from him. God alone can comfort in such an hour, and naught that man can say is of much avail to soothe the anguish of the bleeding heart. Let us remember that the same loving Savior, who, when here on earth, said: "Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven," and who took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them, has taken this loved to himself.

She is not dead—the child of our affection—But gone into that school Where she no longer needs our poor protection, And Christ himself doth rule.

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, in Jesus Christ, his only son. . . . . The communion of the saints. . . . . The resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting.—Amen.

Lost.

At administration building or in carriage on Nov. 21, a broach, composed of large turquoise surrounded by pearls. Reward will be paid to finder by leaving broach with Mrs G. M. Raphael.

An Important Petition.

Mr. Martin B. Kingsbury has a petition to congress, open for signers, asking that the government engineers be allowed to use the amount already appropriated ($59,000) for dredging out the channel at Brazos Santiago. This work is of paramount importance to the people of Brownsville, and every citizen should see that his signature is attached to this petition. It will be signed by the city council, in a body.

The L. C. A. Concert.

We understand the concert to be given by the Ladies' Aid society on Friday evening, Dec. 9th, will be on quite a large scale. The St. Cecilia full band have tendered their services for the occasion, and will add a most attractive feature. The children's chorus is very pretty and represents them all at play on dismissal from school.

Our local talent will be well represented and will be aided by some Matamoros friends. Among these the popular tenor Mr. Manuel Colya figures. Professor Acuña we regret to state is unable to attend. One of his best pupils will, however, charm us with selections from "Aida." many will have an opportunity of hearing Liz's famous Rhapsodie "Hongroise" played by two young ladies. We must not omit our own prima donna Mrs. W. H. Mason, who will favor us for the first time in Brownsville with the celebrated cavatina "Costa Diva" from the opera Norma.

The full program for the concert will be published shortly. It can not fail to secure a crowded house. Programs and tickets will be furnished gratuitously to the L. C. A. society. The concert will be followed by a dance.

Heavy Rains.

Fort Ringgold, Nov. 23.—It rained here all night. Steamboat Bessie arrived last evening. All the cavalry troops left here on scouting trip through back country where Lieut. Hays and his troops of Indian scouts have been for the last ten days.

Edinburg, Nov. 23.—Heavy rains here all night.
